

Abdul Wahab Suri

Biosketch

Dr. Abdul Wahab Suri obtained his Master of Arts in Philosophy (1995) and his Ph.D. in Political Philosophy (2004) from the University of Karachi. Dr. Suri's doctorate dissertation focused on "Philosophical Analysis of Rawls' Theory of Justice." He is a Fellow of the Kakenhi Project: The Research into Bioethics in Asia based on Three Levels Structural Analysis, UNESCO-Kumamoto University 2011-2013. His areas of interests are political theory and post-modernity and he specializes in liberal political theory and its corresponding institutions.

Dr. Suri has published several research articles and writings which include "The Future of Communal Identities: Inherent Contradiction between Human Rights Framework and Collective Identities," "Ethics, Values and Society: Social Transformation" published by Oxford University Press in 2006 and "What is living and What is dead in Iqbal", in Revisoning Iqbal As a poet and Muslim and Political Thinker, published by Oxford University Press, Pakistan, 2011. His research articles including "The Possibility of Meta History," Market Forces Vol. 2, No. 1, Jan-2007, "Right without Choice and the Future of Bio-ethics Discourse in Post-Colonial Society," Paper presented at the UNESCO-Kumamoto University Bioethics Roundtable "Bioethics: From Theory to Practice" December 8-10, 2012, at Kumamoto University, Japan, "Liberal Principles of Justice and Emerging Trends of Economic Liberalization: Lesson from Rawlsian Scheme of Distributive Justice," in Market Forces; Journal of Management Business and Economics, Vol. IX No.2 December 2014, "Is liberty possible? The trajectory of liberal institutionalization of liberty in post-colonial societies," published in Journal of Bio-cosmology – neo-Aristoteliansm, Vol. 5 No.1 Winter 2015, etc. are published in internationally reputed journals.

Currently, Dr. Suri is the chairperson of the Department of Philosophy at the Karachi University and was in-charge of the Department from 2004 to December 2006. He has also served as Secretary General of Pakistan Philosophical Congress. He teaches Philosophy of Art, History of Ideas, Modernism, Post-Modernism, Hermeneutics and Muslim Philosophy in different institutions including Institute of Business Administration, Karachi and Indus Valley School of Art and Architecture, Karachi. As a member of the Board of Studies of Philosophy he helped to revise the syllabus of the Department of Philosophy, (recently approved by the Board of Faculty, Karachi University).