

Centre of Biomedical Ethics and Culture

Sindh Institute of Urology and Transplantation

Sharmeen Ali Khan

Biosketch

Sharmeen Ali Khan is a lawyer who completed her LLB (Hons) in Sharia in 1999 and obtained LLM in International Criminal law in 2000. She has over 9 years of experience in the areas of civil and commercial law in Pakistan as well as in other countries. She is currently heading investigative compliance for Africa and the Middle East, for a pharmaceutical company.

Sharmeen has been associated with SIUT since 2004 and has written and provided lectures on laws governing the human body, including abortion, definition of death, medical negligence, and other laws related to organ donation and mental capacity. She has also written on the laws related to adoption and blasphemy.